

RO&Ming with Lil Episode 1

Welcome to
RO&Ming with Lil

lil@deverell.net

Outline

Introducing the O&M profession in Australia:

- Our dream for people with low vision or blindness
- The difficulty of onlookers understanding what O&M involves
- Simulated vision loss = grief and culture shock, not competence
- Differences between OTs and O&M Specialists

Purposes of the podcast:

- learning about O&M from an Australian perspective
- a professional development forum

Contacts / Resources

- PowerPoint slides for RO&Ming with Lil episodes:
www.lildeverell.net/resources
- To offer feedback, suggest a topic, or record an episode together:
Email: lil@deverell.net
Mobile: +61 418 370 312

Credits

- Music
  - Happy Stroll, a royalty-free download from Purple Planet Music
- Graphics created by Lil Deverell with
  - technotherapy from Erin Deverell
  - photos from
    - An amateur drone photographer from Cornwall, flying over a spaghetti junction in Birmingham (royalty-free)
    - Christine Darwood, a wildlife spotter in the ACT who snapped our sprightly echidna crossing the road (used with permission)
    - Rob Keating, a Canberra-based photographer, who found a weathered wombat crossing the road (purchased from <https://keatingmedia.com.au>)

